Woman Killed in Flaming Accident

Glen Carbon Resident Trapped in Burning Auto; Other Crashes

One person was killed and 22 others were injured as 31 traffic accidents occurred on Quad-City area streets and highways during the weekend.

A woman was burned to death and five other persons were injured in a five-vehicle chain reaction accident at 9 p.m. Thursday at the Peters Station rail crossing on Highway 157.

Pronounced dead at the scene by Dean Fletcher of Edwardsville, deputy coroner, was Mrs. Helen Elaine McCain, 49, of Glen Carbon. Her husband, Freeman McCain, 51, suffered second and third degree burns to his face, hands and neck and was transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital to Barnes Hospital, St. Louis.

The accident occurred when four autos were stopped at the crossing for a train.

A pickup truck driven by Ronald Hayden, 26, of East St. Louis, struck the rear of the McCain auto, shoving it into the rear of the auto of Eddie Fritts, 18, of Collinsville. The Fritts car burst into flames and spread to the McCain auto.

McCain was able to leave the auto but his wife was trapped. Other autos struck were driven by Joyce Merritt, 34, of Collinsville, and Rosalyn J. Croy, 41, of Belleville.

Hayden was indicted on a charge of reckless homicide Friday afternoon by the Madison county grand jury.

Fritts suffered contusions of the scalp and was transferred to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis. Donna Croy, nine, of Belleville, received x-rays of the spine at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was released.

Hayden suffered second and third degree burns and is undergoing treatment at Wood River Township Hospital. Mrs. Merritt was examined and released.

Cab Driver Cut, Seriously Hurt; Seek Assailant

Charles Bryant, 37, a St. Louis cab driver, was critically wounded about 3 a.m. Friday when he was cut about the face and neck in the 1200 block of Madison avenue by an assailant whose identity is being sought by Madison police.

The attack occurred in front of Buzz's tavern, 1226 Madison avenue, where the cab driver, a Negro, accompanied by a white man, had sought a drink a few minutes earlier, police said.

Bryant suffered a severe cut on the left side of his neck and a deep laceration on the left side of his face. After he had been cut, Bryant got into his cab, made a U turn on Madison avenue and headed toward St. Louis shortly before Madison police arrived on the scene.

Madison officers radioed Venetia police, who intercepted Bryant on McKinley Bridge. They said Bryant was bleeding profusely and that the cab was covered with blood.

Venice police called an ambulance, which took Bryant to St. Elizabeth Hospital. He was reported in fair condition today.

According to Madison police, Bryant, accompanied by a man whose identity has not been established, entered Buzz's tavern shortly before 3 a.m. The man asked for a drink. Betty Moore, barmaid, refused to serve them and told them they already had too much to drink, police said.

Connie York, operator of the tavern, told police she asked the two men to leave and that the cab driver pulled a knife and said he would "cut my throat," according to police reports. The man with Bryant then pulled him out the door, the tavern proprietor related.

A witness, who witnessed the attack from the street told police that he had seen a "brawl" in front of Buzz's tavern and saw a man lean in the cab window as if he was "punching something." The man he saw then joined a group of about eight to ten people standing in front of the cab.

He said the entire group then went inside Buzz's tavern. Venice police said they recovered a knife from the floor of the cab, apparently the weapon used to cut Bryant.

Election Sept. 9 To Form Village

Court Sets Date for 'Chain of Rocks' Vote After Brief Hearing

A special election on a proposal to incorporate a 437-acre area of Chouteau township as the Village of Chain of Rocks will be held Tuesday, Sept. 9, under an order issued in circuit court at Edwardsville Friday morning.

The election was set by Circuit Judge Howard White of Jersey county following a half-hour hearing on petitions requesting a referendum on the incorporation plan.

Only three witnesses—all proponents of the proposal—testified during the brief hearing. The petition, filed June 30, was not protested and no objectors appeared in court.

Judge White set the election date after consultation with Attorney Francis J. Manning of Wood River at the end of the hearing.

Manning, who represents supporters of the incorporation, accepted the Sept. 9 date suggested by Judge White after first rejecting the suggestion that the referendum be held Sept. 23 in conjunction with the primary election for nomination of delegates to the Illinois constitutional convention.

"Wanted Separate Election"

Manning told the court he believed the proposal would be given closer attention by the voting public if it were held separately from any other election.

Judge White then offered the Sept. 9 date as the only time he would be available to canvass the vote. Under Illinois state law, votes cast in an incorporation referendum must be canvassed by the court which orders the election.

Robert Douglas, operator of the Canal Motel located in the proposed village area, testified that he had supervised a door-to-door canvass of the area and determined the proposed village.

Pfc White, 20, Wounded Last Week in Vietnam

Pfc Richard White, 20, was wounded in action in Vietnam on July 21 by small arms fire while on a combat operation when a hostile force was encountered, according to a telegram received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. White of 3284 Wabash avenue, from the Secretary of the Army. He suffered wounds to his abdomen and right arm and is being treated at a hospital in Vietnam.

Pvt. White is assigned to the First Infantry Division and had been stationed near Dak To. He had recently been transferred to another area in Vietnam as a replacement for a soldier who was sent back to the states.

A 1967 graduate of Granite City high school, the young serviceman entered the Army Oct. 1, 1968, and took basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He was sent to Fort Lewis, Wash., for advanced training and went overseas last April 1.

A close friend of Pfc Benjamin Sullivan, 19, who was killed in combat in Vietnam early last week, the two youths had gone overseas just three days apart, according to the father of the wounded serviceman.

He is the second local resident wounded in Vietnam within a week.

Friends of Pfc White may write him—Pfc Richard White, RA 6807789, Medical Holding Co., 2401 S. General Hospital, APO San Francisco, Calif., 96367.

PROPOSED PUBLIC-OWNED water distribution line for area communities would include construction of a five to six-foot main indicated by dotted line in the upper half of the map. The new pipeline would connect with the present line of East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. (solid black line), which extends southward into St. Clair county. Burglars Loot, Burn Store At Venice; Loss $13,000

Burglars broke into Baucum grocery, 1001 Logan street, Venice, early this morning, looted the office and cash register and then started a fire that did damage estimated at $13,000 before the blaze was brought under control.

The store is owned by Venice Alderman Henry Baucum whose property had been reported a potential target of black militants responsible for a series of racial disorders in North Venice nearly two months ago.

Firesmen received an alarm at 4:25 a.m. from Mrs. Earl Patterson, who lives in apartments over the Baucum store. She later told police that she smelled smoke and went outside her apartment where she heard "popping noises" from the second floor of the building.

Police, who arrived on the scene a few minutes later, found firemen, said they found a door on the southeast corner of the building had been pried open and kicked in.

The fire apparently started in the office and had gained headway before firemen arrived.

Firesmen estimated damage to the building at $3000 and damage to contents at $10,000. Firesmen were at the scene until 7 a.m.

Police said the cash register had been broken open and the office ransacked. Baucum told officers that $12 to $15 in cash was taken from the cash register along with several silver dollars. Twenty dollars, a quantity of trading stamps and two checks were taken from a desk drawer, Baucum reported.

Police said that on the basis of information supplied by firemen, it appeared obvious the fire was started by the burglars, possibly in an effort to cover the theft.

2 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

A six-man team appointed by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie to inspect Illinois flood damage will discuss available assistance at meetings Wednesday in Granite City, St. Louis, Murphysboro and Belleville.

Meetings with news representatives, after residents, local officials and other interested persons are scheduled for 9:15 a.m. in the Alexander county courthouse, Cairo; 10:45 a.m., Jackson county court house, Murphysboro; 2:45 p.m., St. Clair county court house, Granite City; and 3:45 p.m., St. Clair county court house, Belleville.

Members of the fact-finding committee, assigned to inspect high water damage to crops and property along the Mississippi River and its tributaries in Illinois, are:

Alexander D. White, representing Gov. Ogilvie as team chief; Col. Donovan Van, director of the Illinois Civil Defense Administration; Charles Woods of the Federal Office of Emergency Preparedness; John Lewis, director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture; and Karl Luthin and Eugene Kertepert, representing the division of highways and waterways in the state Department of Public Works and Building.

The four Wednesday conferences will provide information on governmental assistance available under both federal and state programs.

Several Congressmen and state legislators have expressed concern to Gov. Ogilvie about flood damage in southwestern Illinois and have inquired about assistance for the area residents.

'United Fun Fair' to Open This Year's UF Campaign

A "United Fun Fair" will be staged Sept. 27-28 at the Wilson Park rink-pavilion to kick off this year's Tri-City Area United Fund campaign, scheduled to open officially on Oct. 1.

Leo Konzen, local lawyer and general fund chairman, said the "United Fun Fair" will replace the traditional kick of dinner and will be highlighted with carnival rides and fun booths and "an accent on good clean fun."

Howard Kaseberg has been named "ringmaster" for the event, aided by Howard Colquhoun as assistant ringmaster; Chester Baker in charge of ticket sales; Harold Brown in charge of physical operations and Norman Hall, coordinator for the Fun Fair and United Fund agencies booths.

An advance sale of admission tickets is being planned with the proceeds to go to the United Fund.

Kaseberg said the fair's purpose is twofold—to provide novelty entertainment for Quad-Cityans and to acquaint all Quad-Cityans with the services provided by the United Fund agencies.

"We'll have such booths as marksmanship with waterguns and candle targets, probably a dunking booth and plenty of free souvenirs that are being donated by local businesses and industries."

Kaseberg's committee is taking applications from any organization wishing to set up a fun booth and also souvenirs that businesses might want to donate. Trophies will be awarded for the best United Fund agency booth and non-agency booth.

Greenery, Walks Could End Monotonous, Barren Look

Granite City's "main street" is actually two streets, Madison avenue going southwest to northeast and then Nameoki road angling due north. Improvement of both is proposed under a beautification program submitted to the Women's Division of the U.S. Department of Commerce of the Tri-Cities.

A parking area at Madison avenue and 18th street is listed for possible permanent surfacing and a low screen, either a hedge, fence or wall three feet high.

For other blocks, possibilities include sign control, reduction of parking area infringement on sidewalks and elimination of a weed-infested unpaved strip between the curb and walk.

Area H, Madison avenue from 20th to 24th streets, is a potential residential renewal area with generally well maintained public usage areas but some need for additional trees, control of parking area infringement on sidewalks and elimination of a weed-infested unpaved strip between the curb and walk.

Area G, Madison avenue from 18th to 20th streets, is a potential residential renewal area with generally well maintained public usage areas but some need for additional trees, control of parking area infringement on sidewalks and elimination of a weed-infested unpaved strip between the curb and walk.

The north side of Madison avenue contains parking areas unimproved and not screened, and numerous automotive facilities. A general impression of this side is described as a "barren looking and littered."

The entire south side is a part of the steel firm, and the large buildings and fences are termed a "straightforward expression of the function of this heavy industry. Gravel areas between the fence and street curbing are seen as barren looking and littered."

New Water System Is Proposed In Venice

Publicly-Owned Lines Serving Portions of 2 Counties Proposed

A multi-million-dollar publicly-owned water distribution system that would serve communities on the Illinois side of the river from north of Alton to south of East St. Louis was proposed Friday night by Venice city officials who took an initial action toward development of the plan.

The proposed water system would be developed through construction of a new pipeline north of Chouteau township and acquisition of present facilities of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co., through condemnation proceedings if necessary.

It would be operated by a public corporation made up of communities served by the system.

Financing would be by revenue bonds, with construction and acquisition costs prorated among member communities of the public corporation.

Each community participating in the corporation would have an "share" in number equal to the number of residents in the community.

At the Right Time

Venice Mayor John Lee described the program as a "plan that comes at the right time... at a time when utility costs are going up everywhere."

He said it "is the answer to plans by the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. to raise rates throughout this area by $26" the water company at present does not have franchises with Granite City, Madison or Venice.

Success of such a proposal would depend on the interest of communities in developing their own water system, from which the municipalities could buy their water supplies wholesale, the mayor said. In effect, the people would be buying the water system and paying water bills for their own benefit, he added.

The proposal was placed before the city council Friday by Milton Morris, operator of the M.I.M. or Manufacturing Co., Venice, who said he conceived the idea after becoming aware of a 60- to 80-foot depth of reasonably pure water in the Mississippi River at a point north of Alton where the new Sioux power plant has been constructed by Union Electric Co. on the Missouri side of the river.

Mayor Lee, following presentation of the program, told the council he had discussed the plan with Morris on several occasions and believed it to be a reasonable program that could be worked out "if other communities show an interest in efforts to create their own public water utility."

He appointed an eight-member committee, with Morris as chairman, to begin a series of meetings with officials of other area communities to determine the extent of interest.

"If other cities show an interest in the plan, and I can see no reason why they should not, then we can proceed with plans to obtain an engineering feasibility study that would go into the program at greater depth," the mayor said.

In addition to Morris, Mayor Lee named Alderman John Ervin to the citizens' committee. Ervin is chairman of the Venice council water committee and is the only official on the committee.

Other members of the committee are Roderick Bauder, Edward Gray, William Garrett, J. D. Sands, Betty Wallace and Mabel Dandridge.

Mayor Lee said City Engineer Jack Tolliver and Edward Jumeau, city consulting engineer, will aid the committee in answering questions of an engineering nature.

Morris' plan encompasses construction of a five- or six-foot water pipeline, originating in the hilly area north of Alton, with the intake located at the deep pool of water.

The pipeline would extend along the Illinois shore of the river to connect with the present four-foot pipeline of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. at a point near the rear intake.

Renovation Necessary
Morris said the water company's present line extending southward from the Chouteau intake through the Quad-Cities and East St. Louis is about 40 years old. Renovation of this line would have to be included in any overall program, he said.

To serve the Alton area through the existing water system there, the proposed public corporation also would have to acquire facilities of the North American Co., which serves the Alton-East Alton-Wood River area. That company is operated by the same holding company which owns the East

St. Louis & Interurban Water Co., he said.

Both Morris and Mayor Lee noted that if facilities of the two existing water companies could not be purchased by negotiation, they could be acquired by condemnation in which the courts would set the price the municipalities would pay for the privately-owned facilities.

Depth Lacks Explanation
Morris said there has been no explanation for the existence of the deep area of water in the river north of Alton, although it is theorized that an underground water channel or deep springs exist along the riverbed. That area of the river never gets shallower, while other areas do, he reported.

He said it would be the ideal point for the water system intake, since it is located in hilly areas that would give the added advantage of gravity flow toward lower lands below Alton and throughout the American Bottoms area.

In addition, he explained, water at this point has proven much purer than that of other river areas, lending credence to the theory of underground springs feeding into that part of the river.

This factor would be an added advantage, since purification operations would be much simpler, Morris said. An intake at this point is far above the Wood River oil refinery area, which has been the frequent cause of river pollution and a water purification problem on many occasions, he noted.

The system outlined in the plan could serve virtually all communities along the Illinois side of the river and eventually could be extended to Collinsville and beyond through subsequent acquisition of other existing lines, mains, and distribution facilities, Morris told the Venice council.

He said such a system at the present time would serve an estimated 238,000 customers, "and with the growing population throughout the area, there is no limit to the number of customers such a public corporation eventually would serve."

No estimate of cost is available, the council was told, until a feasibility study is made. "However," Morris said, "if it cost an X number of dollars, the corporation could charge a rate to meet cost plus, say, a 20% profit."

"The corporation then could distribute its profits among the member communities on the pro-rata basis, or could use the profit to cut water rates."

He said a municipal utility of this kind has a tremendous customer potential, noting that large industries of the Alton and Quad-Cities areas use vast amounts of water.

The Illinois Commerce Commission announced meanwhile that a hearing on its order suspending a 47% rate increase by East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. has been set for 2 p.m. Sept. 3 in Springfield.

MORE ABOUT Election

would include 506 residents, not including those living in mobile trailer houses.

Douglas told the court the proposed village area would cover .82 of a square mile, about one-third of the area proposed for incorporation of the Village of Chouteau in a referendum held Feb. 26, 1968.

The proposal was defeated 657 to 58.

For purposes of the court record, Douglas identified maps and plats outlining boundaries and plans outlining the legal description contained in the referendum petition.

No Similar Name
He also identified for the court a document received from Secretary of State Paul Powell certifying that Illinois has no other municipality by the name of Chain of Rocks, and testified that location of the proposed village is more than one mile from any other incorporated municipality, an incorporation requirement of the Illinois statute.

James Greer of the G & G Lumber Co., another supporter of the incorporation plan, was on the stand only a few minutes. He confirmed answers given by Douglas.

Final witness was Willard Flagg, a civil engineer who drew up the legal description of the area proposed for incorporation. He testified only to the fact that the boundaries shown on maps and plats at court exhibits were the same as those listed in the legal description of the petition.

One Polling Place
Manning told the court that only one polling place will be required and that it will be located at the home of Paul Sebold, 23 Paul drive.

Judge White ordered the polling place to be open from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m., and instructed the county clerk's office to prepare 100 ballots.

He also approved appointment of five election judges, Viola Cox, Willard Hicks, Catharine Jones, Orville Sulk and Robert Waggoner, all residents of the area.

The move early last year to incorporate the Village of Chouteau met strong opposition which succeeded in soundly defeating the proposal. That election covered 1.9 square miles and included both the western and central Mitchell area.

The newly proposed village area includes Sunny Dell Acres and Rae Gene Acres subdivisions on either side of West Chain of Rocks road and extends from Old Alton road on the east to a line near West Chain of Rocks canal bridge on the west.

It does not include the Cedar Park and Hills Terrace subdivision or an area of 2200 West Chain of Rocks road south of the highway near Illinois Route Three which were included within the boundaries last year.

A smaller area for proposed incorporation was selected in the new effort to increase chances of passage. If the referendum is successful, residents of areas surrounding the village could be annexed if they desired.

Hope is Slim For U.S. Funds For GC Sewers

Reporting on his trip to Chicago last week, Mayor Partney told the Press-Record Friday there was little hope for securing federal funds for sewerage and urban development agency for drainage ditches in the area.

"We still might be able to get a planning loan for sanitary sewer construction in our troubled area, but no federal funds are available during the current federal fiscal year which runs through next June 30," the mayor said.

The city was turned down flatly on planning funds for sanitary sewer repairs, but possibly can get a planning loan next year for new construction.

On the drainage ditches for the Doboy slough and Metairie area, designed as part of the city's 1960 multi-million dollar sewerage system, Mayor Partney was told most of the area to be drained lies outside the city limits and the city would not be eligible for federal funds unless the areas were annexed.

"We can either annex or let an agency, such as the levee district do the job," the mayor said. Nameoki Twp. Supervisor Harry Briggs and Levee Board Trustee William Ebersold were unable to make the trip.

The bond legal firm of Chapman & Cutler also was visited at Chicago by the mayor, who was accompanied by City Atty. Scroggins and Assistant City Atty. Hartman. The firm's legal staff and the two city attorneys are to research city ordinances pertaining to sewerage construction to determine any possible means to use surplus funds for repairing breaks. "It doesn't look too good," the mayor commented.

Murder Charge Filed Against Local Man, 25

Kasell Jennings, 25, of 205 Hill street was arrested at his home at 8:40 p.m. Friday and charged with murder in the fatal shooting early July 23 of a Fair Grove, Mo., man in an armed robbery at an East St. Louis truck washing firm.

Booked at the Madison county jail in Edwardsville on a traffic charge and then transferred to the St. Louis city jail, Jennings is alleged to have killed Paul Oliver Walker, 41, who was shot once in the head by one of two men who held up Lee's Wash Rack, 712 North First street.

A second suspect in the robbery is being sought. Witnesses told police that two men, each carrying pistols, entered the establishment and took wallets from six customers, obtaining a total of $50. One shot was fired, striking Mr. Walker, who was being forced to lie under a truck that was being cleaned.

When the robbers left, they took along Mrs. Danny Hatcher, 17, Winchester, Ill., who was found unharmed 90 minutes later in National City, a mile from the robbery scene. East St. Louis police charged that the drive to National City was part of the escape route for the bandits. They said descriptions by witnesses aided in locating the suspect.

Mr. Walker, who leaves a wife and six children, drove to the St. Louis area once each week carrying hogs and other farm produce.

The 4 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. Peter Stamboldjiev, and a buffet supper was held afterward at Holy Trinity Hall in Madison.

A gown of ivory silk organzine was worn by the bride. The high-collared waistline was outlined with crystals, seed pearls and Val lace and the same trim was repeated at the neck. The train was attached at the waist and a cathedral veil was formed of two tiers of bouffant illusion held in place with a small bonnet trimmed with orange blossoms.

The bride's colonial bouquet was made up of assorted summer flowers in varying shades, combined with baby's breath.

Miss Christine Pashoff, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant, and Miss Carol Pashoff, a cousin, and Miss Carol Spudich, the bridegroom's niece, served as bridesmaids.

They were dressed alike in chiffon gowns with long bishop sleeves and satin contour belts outlining the waistlines. The collars were of satin and all wore large straw hats with long matching ribbons. Their bouquets were smaller copies of the bride's.

According to custom, four girls were selected to distribute candy favors after the wedding ceremony. Preceding the bride and her attendants, they wore identical short white dresses with pastel-colored flowers to match the net on the favors.

They were Donna Veschoroff of Palatine, Ill., a cousin of the bride, Lisa Kacaliet of Clayton, Mo., and Nolie and Wendy Stein of Jacksonville, Ill., nieces of the bridegroom.

John Goulias, a cousin of the bride, Carl Karandjef, another cousin, and Neil Spudich, a nephew of the groom, served as groomsmen. Ushers were George Spudich, and Al Stein, a nephew, and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

A champagne coat and dress ensemble of re-embroidered lace was worn by the bride's mother. The bridegroom's mother was in a beige coat costume trimmed with pearls.

Both mothers wore matching accessories and corsages of white roses.

The couple will spend a four-week honeymoon in Florida and the Bahamas.

Kathleen Stack Becomes Bride of James A. Welch

Miss Kathleen Stack, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stack, 3029 Iowa street, and James A. Welch, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Welch, Rural Route Two, Bunker Hill, exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Rev. Thomas Treese officiated at the 5:30 Mass before the altar decorated with white flowers and greenery.

Mr. Stack gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk shantung and Venice lace. The sleeveless bodice was designed with a high neck accented with lace in beiter effect, and lace also trimmed the chapel train.

A bouquet of silk illusion was secured by a half hat of matching lace with additional motifs in the veiling.

A crescent bouquet of gardenias and variegated ivy centered with a corsage was carried by the bride.

Music for the ceremony was furnished by Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw, organist, and Mrs. Alice Worthen, vocalist.

The maid of honor, Miss Marsha Kamler, Mrs. Cathy Daesch, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Jo Ann Stallman bridesmaids, and Miss Pam Cruse, junior maid, wore floor-length gowns of organza made on skimmer lines. They were sleeveless with high necks trimmed with green and blue with a matching headpiece and carried aqua and green flowers.

The honor attendant was in light green and the maids wore aquamarine. All carried corsages of light green and icecream poms with frills of lace. Headpieces of flowers, petals and mainline matched the gowns.

A little flower girl, Mary Lou Blazquez, a niece of the bridegroom, wore a long white dress trimmed with green and blue with a matching headpiece and carried aqua and green flowers.

in a white basket. Stephen Stack, the bride's brother, carried the rings.

Mr. Welch was attended by Harry Dean Fite as best man, and James Halfo, Dr. Ronald West, Ray Stack, the bride's brother, groomsmen, and Jim and Dan Stack, brothers of the bride, ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stack wore a pale pink imported linen dress and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected lime green embroidered silk over taffeta and accessories of white. Both mothers had gardenia corsages.

A reception was held at the VFW Hall after the church ceremony, and the newlyweds left later for a honeymoon in Colorado. They will reside in Granite City when they return.

Vietnam Book Drive to Start

An annual "Books for Vietnam" drive has been set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the YMCA lobby, 20th street and Edison avenue. Kozak's market, 3600 Namooki road, and Coachette Inn, Pontoon and Nameoki roads.

Containers will be located at each of the three points, it was reported by Mrs. Bette Mertz, 3312 Terrace lane, book chairman for Quad-City Navy Mothers Unit 860.

Pocket books and hard cover books suitable for mailing to servicemen in Southeast Asia are sought. The books will be forwarded as soon as they are packed into boxes and wrapped for shipping.

Western, mystery and science fiction stories are especially popular at service hospitals and camps. Any fiction or non-fiction books will be welcomed, Mrs. Mertz added.

Books too bulky to be mailed are sold in an annual fall book fair, with proceeds aiding servicemen. The unit also holds book sales and rummage sales during the year.

Residents with quantities of books and unable to take them to the collection points may call Mrs. Mertz at 877-0629 or deliver them to her home.

Sp4 James Holland Off Critical List

Mr. and Mrs. James Holland, 2837 Cleveland blvd., received another telegram from the War Department Friday morning, stating their son, Sp4 James Holland has been taken off the critical list and is now listed as seriously ill, as a result of injuries sustained July 19 in Vietnam.

Sp. Holland, 21, was accidentally shot in the neck in a weapons mishap about 22 miles north of Saigon. The Holland family also learned, although not yet confirmed, that the accident occurred when a member of the Military Police was preparing to go on duty and his gun accidentally discharged. Young Holland is serving with a Military Police unit.

Other than the telegram, the Hollands have also had a letter from their son this morning written by a volunteer worker. The youth stated he would be moved to an Army Hospital in Japan as soon as the doctors thought he was well enough to travel.

Bob Meszaros of Granite City, a very close friend of young Holland, is stationed near the Army Hospital in Vietnam, and has visited him last Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hemmery invited the club to their home in East St. Louis in August.

'Constitutional' Tax Ruling Hikes City Cash Outlook

The Illinois Supreme Court ruled Friday that the new state income tax of 2 1/2% on individuals and 4% on corporations is constitutional. The decision paved the way for withholding of the tax to begin Friday, Aug. 1.

Although taxpayers view the news with mixed emotions, most governmental officials are pleased by the prospect of added revenue to meet rising expenditures.

Local-level government is to get a twelfth of the Illinois income tax as well as seeing its share of the sales tax advance Oct. 1 from three-fourths of a cent to a full cent per sales dollar.

The potential annual net based on 1968 volume shows: City of Granite City—$298,000 in income tax and an extra $165,340 in sales tax (up from $496,021 to $661,361).

Madison—$50,000 in income tax and an added $26,620 in sales tax (up from $76,620 to $103,240).

Venice—$36,000 in income tax and an extra $3557 in sales tax (up from $40,557 to $44,114).

Pontoon Beach village—$6700 in income tax and an added $3561 in sales tax (up from $8853 to $12,414).

Madison county—$600,000 to $670,000 in income tax and an extra $112,790 in sales tax (up from $338,372 to $451,162).

County Auditor John Krzywicki said the new revenue will be used to reduce the property tax rate.

Miss DeWitt Enjoyed Contest Experiences

Dottie DeWitt, Miss Granite City, upon her return from participation in the Miss Illinois Contest at Aurora, this past week said, "The first part of the week was very nerve-racking with so much pressure on each of the contestants. As the week progressed, and we all became better acquainted, I think we all enjoyed the experience."

Although the local girl did not reach the top ten, she said the talent "was fantastic and on a professional level by the girls who did reach the final plateau."

Dulcie Scripture, 20, of Elgin, was crowned Miss Illinois on Saturday night by the retiring Miss Illinois of 1968, Sharon Mitchell.

Charged in Collision

Kathryn Jones, 56 Villa drive, was charged with leaving the scene of a crash which damaged the front of the parked auto of John Hadley, 1821 St. Clair avenue, at the St. Clair address at 4:30 a.m. Saturday.

There was damage to the left front of the other car.

Fire attributed to a propane gas torch explosion caused $25 damage to a tree house on property of the Greenman family at 2307 August street at 8:10 p.m. Friday. Firemen answered the alarm.

Compost from Refuse—A Soil Conditioner

(Ninth of a series)

Composting is a process to effect the decomposition and stabilization of organic matter by biological action, Horner & Shifrin, consulting engineers, report.

It is a completely natural process and may be compared to the process by which nature has helped to form the rich soils common to many regions.

The decomposition may be accomplished by either an aerobic fermentation or by aerobic decomposition and stabilization.

In both processes, bacteria, fungi, molds and other organisms feed upon organic materials, such as vegetable matter, animal manure or sewage sludge, and convert the wastes to a more stable form.

In those plants which compost municipal refuse, the aerobic process normally is used, since it is more rapid and usually creates fewer nuisances.

No Odor, Health Hazard

Organic materials which have been composted properly will be essentially odorless and will have the appearance of natural humus. Compost may be compared to peat moss, in that the two materials function as soil conditioners when applied to the soil.

Compost has only a nominal fertilizer value, with the amounts of nutrients in the compost dependent on the quality of the material from which the compost was made.

The composting process, when properly performed and controlled, will kill pathogenic organisms by the heat generated internally, and the product is considered to be relatively safe from a public health standpoint.

Salvage Metals, Rags, Glass

Mixed refuse requires extensive sorting and preparation prior to composting. As a result, the composting facilities usually incorporate means of recovering salvageable materials, such as metals, cardboard, rags and glass.

There are a number of plants composting municipal refuse or components thereof in various parts of the world. The application of the process is very limited in the U. S.

Only a few plants are in existence in this country. Of these, only five are known to have capacities of more than 100 tons of raw refuse per day.

Only two of these five plants are operating, the remainder being closed because of a lack of market for the products, unfavorable economic situations or adverse public reactions to various nuisances alleged to have been created by the plants.

Research in Progress

The Bureau of Solid Wastes Management of the U. S. Public Health Service currently is subsidizing several composting projects as a part of its program of research into the problems of solid waste disposal.

The general quality of the mixed refuse produced in areas such as Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties is such that only minor quantities of putrescible materials normally are present. The refuse is high in cellulose, in the form of paper, which is highly resistant to decomposition because of its low nitrogen content.

The raw refuse also contains materials such as metals and forms of synthetics which will not respond to the composting process and which must be removed and otherwise disposed of.

Sludge Supplement

Thus, when the composting process is used, it is necessary to use only selected refuse for the process, and to supplement the selected refuse with highly nitrogenous materials, such as sewage sludge, garbage or other materials more rich in nitrogen.

Since almost all of the existing plants producing compost from municipal refuse are privately owned, they must operate to render a profit.

Products derived from such plants presently are limited to the salvageable materials and compost. The salvage material market appears to lack stability in many areas of the U. S., as shown by the intermittent or discontinued operation of several of the salvage-composting plants.

At best, the economics of salvage operations appear to be marginal, particularly as a municipal enterprise.

A moderate amount of research is taking place with regard to potential products to be derived. At least two of the private firms which have been built and operated composting facilities have produced briquettes for fuel.

At least one other firm has experimented with pelletizing the product in an effort to make the compost more marketable for home gardening use. Some experiments have been performed on the growing of mushrooms in compost.

Other research has been in the direction of producing animal feeds from derivatives of waste paper products. There is no reliable data on the relative economics of producing and selling these products.

Compost from municipal refuse, since it is at best a very weak fertilizer, must necessarily be marketed as a soil conditioner, unless supplementary nutrients are added.

Conditioner Demand Limited

There normally would be little demand for such material in regions with rich soils.

To date, there has been only nominal interest in the material, and the actual value of compost in various agronomic uses has not yet been determined.

There appears to be no realistic price scale for compost produced from municipal refuse.

Next: Conclusions on composting.

'When U. S. Does Come Down, It Will Be Through a Combination of Leaflets, Sitdowns, Fighting...'

(Part of a report by Robert Betts, placed in the Congressional Record by U. S. Senator George Murphy of California.) Americans do not have to look for Reds under the bed. They can be seen leading a college riot or mingling in the melee like extras in a movie crowd scene.

They are not all card-carrying members of the Communist party. They are defined not by whether they pay party dues, but by their actions, their vocabulary and the way they always manage to be where trouble is.

Those who keep close, continuing watch on the unfolding pattern of subversion in this country can pick them out easily.

The average American sees only turmoil and shakes his head over the "impetuosity" of youth.

Educators tell him—between frequent fires, bombings and other acts of sabotage and terrorism—that the young people have many legitimate grievances and that they need "patience and understanding."

Others oversimplify the problem and play into the hands of those who—ridicule "Red-baiters" by attributing all criticism and protest to "the Communist conspiracy."

A bewildering assortment of youth protest movements contribute to the confusion—the Third World Liberation Front, Progressive Labor Movement, New Left Forum, W. B. Dubois clubs, Students for a Democratic Society, Young Socialist Alliance, Young Communist League, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and dozens of others.

Communist activity inside such groups is so subtle and diversified that it is not always easy to distinguish between real enemies and well-meaning, misguided, would-be reformers.

Whatever the radicals call themselves—Socialist, Marxist, Leninist, progressive-laborite or Trotskyite, Stalinist or Maoist, Castroite or militant, so far as the Federal Bureau of Investigation is concerned they are all the same under-the-bed.

Distinction between such labels is irrelevant. FBI Director Edgar Hoover says the cause of the basic objective of both New Left and old-line Communist and their adherents in our society is to completely destroy our form of government.

The leaders of campus violence make no secret of it. They travel from campus to campus making speeches and distributing literature, talking for the overthrow of "bourgeois America."

A 28-year-old non-student leader of the Socialist Workers party, who has loomed large at every demonstration of consequence over the past 10 years, recently told the Third World Liberation Front in San Francisco:

"You're but part of a world struggle against the U.S. ruling class. Your victory will be the victory of oppressed people around the world."

He faces a conspiracy trial for his part in the seizure of Mosby Hall, Berkeley, last October and was writing from Cuba. Police list him as a Trotskyite-Communist professional agitator.

Another familiar face is a leader of the Students for a Democratic Society, whose members call themselves professional revolutionaries committed to the destruction of imperialism and capitalism in general and the promotion of guerrilla warfare.

Also 29, he helped found the SDS in 1961 when a University of Michigan student. An SDS tactical chief, he visited the Soviet Union in 1965 with the top U.S. Red strategist. He also has consorted with Red bigwigs in Moscow, Peking and elsewhere. Last year he went to Paris to confer with North Vietnamese leaders and then he went to Cuba to lead a student crusade against the draft.

He was at Columbia in May 1968, helping the local SDS man, another delegate to Cuba, organize the assault on the university buildings.

Two months later, disguised this time with dark glasses, pulled-down hat and bandana mask, he was among the 800 Chicago demonstrators during their confrontation with the police. Still later, he showed up for the troubles at San Francisco State College.

The task, the SDS tactical says, is to "create more 'Chicago' in all cities, more 'Columbias' on our campuses."

Also on the picket line recently at San Francisco State was one of the organizers of the Free Speech Movement which in 1964 put the blight on Berkeley.

Other FSM instigators who have been busy before and since include:

1. One who graduated from Berkeley and went on to Stanford to be a ring-leader in the troubles there.
2. The daughter of the top U.S. Red strategist. Having at the age of 18 suffered three broken ribs during a rowdy "peace" demonstration in New York, she is not such an ardent advocate of the violent method. She prefers the strategy of "going limp," a fashion she saw during the Berkeley riots.
3. A former chairman of the early Berkeley radical group SLATE, delegate to the Eighth World Communist Youth Conference in Helsinki, who went on to found, with others, the DuBois clubs for bringing together Communist youth.

On a visit to Hanoi in 1965, he was proclaimed an "honorary nephew" of Communist leader Ho Chi Minh. He has participated in demonstrations in this country wearing a Viet Cong cap and a ring he claims was made from the wreckage of an American plane.

A 4. A girl who reportedly went from Berkeley to Cuba, on to Moscow, back to New York in time for the Columbia riots, then back to Berkeley for the latest disturbance there.

5. A man now in prison for his part in the Chicago disorders. In a letter to friends asking for contributions to the "Defense Committee," he wrote:

"To challenge the courts is to attack American society at its roots."

"In campus rebellions, the most revolutionary demand, the demand that can never be granted by the administration, is the demand for amnesty."

"An offensive against the courts and jails—including direct action and direct legal and financial aid to the victims of the system—would be the most immediate link that a white movement could possibly make with blacks and poor whites."

"As a beginning, let's organize massive mobilizations for the spring, nationally coordinated and very militant, taking place near courts, jails, military stockades."

Others who will not be appearing on television for while are Eldridge Cleaver, 33, in hiding after a parole violation; and a young man, 23, who is now in a jail cell for his part in a gun battle with police, and Huey Newton, 28, Black Panther "minister of defense," now serving two to 15 years for manslaughter of an Oakland policeman.

Both men were defended by a San Francisco lawyer identified as a Communist by a former fellow member in testimony before the House Select Committee on Un-American Activities in 1957.

A member of the Communist National Lawyers Guild which, it is said, forms the "legal bulwark of the Communist party," he is one of several called on to defend Communists in court, as well as to play a leading role in the defense of the recently told government security programs.

He is also one of the defense attorneys in the trial of the seven Oakland radicals arrested during "Stop the Draft" demonstrations last year.

Among the seven, who recently met comrades of the Liberation Front in Budapest.

"The NLF could not understand why we did not have a single revolutionary organization like them in this country, one organization with a strategy for the liberation of America," he recently told fellow students.

"We tried to explain that we were new at this business, we were experimenting, we were still trying to find the revolutionary tactics that would bring this country down."

When it does come down, he said, it will be through a "some massive combination of leaflets, sit-downs, strikes and fighting in the streets, all of them together."

Another one of the seven is a well-known Berkeley troublemaker, listed as the executive dean of students' office as chairman of Campus Progressive Front, president of the May 2 Movement, chairman of the Medical Aid Committee (formed to give aid to wounded demonstrators).

This one told the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1957:

"I was joined by other people who are fighting for a just and socialist society and I became a member of the progressive Labor party and became a Marxist-Leninist."

Some Negro groups have steered clear of the Communist line. Their leaders are experienced, sincere, men concerned only to right the wrongs that Negroes all over the world have been suffering from since the years.

Illinois Counties Required to Act Soon to Achieve More Equal Board Representation

Although an Illinois constitutional provision will be held starting in December, the amount of time involved in changing the constitution and the uncertainty of success make it necessary for the state to continue efforts to improve life and government. This applies to the issue of county board reapportionment, for which at least some legislative implementation would be needed in any event.

Three separate plans await signing or veto by the governor, and it is possible that all may be approved, giving the counties a wide option. The proposals are weighted voting, continuing the present process in which each township elects a supervisor and a varying number of assistants; supervisors based on population; election of county board members at large; and redistricting by county boards, through revising township boundaries or drawing district lines.

The impetus for change is the U. S. Supreme Court edict for "one man, one vote" representation; most Illinois counties do not come within the range of acceptable variations in the number of citizens each board member represents.

The choice facing the governor and then county officials is not an easy one but the issue is so important that it will need to be met head-on, not only to achieve more equal representation but to aid county government in responding to changed conditions and to the many unmet needs of unincorporated and incorporated areas within county boundaries.

Wildlife Refuges Needed Along State Highways—and at Horseshoe Lake Park

Efforts in this community and elsewhere to eliminate weed-infested areas from the view of motorists are worthwhile. But the next time we see tall grass along highways in Illinois we should not call for it to be moved, state game authorities say.

Grassy road shoulders and back slopes provide nesting cover for pheasants, quail and ground-nesting songbirds like the meadowlark. The need for such wildlife refuges is critical in many parts of this state; in some counties, over 95% of the farmland is cultivated in row crops, with almost no undisturbed meadows or pastures remaining.

Research by the Illinois Natural History Survey shows that an acre of undisturbed grassland produces almost as much pheasant as an acre of unmowed meadow. This finding could be important to their survival, because the pheasant population has fallen more than 25% in the last decade.

State, county and township highway maintenance units deserve commendation for cooperating with the State Conservation Department, risking public disapproval over shaggy rights-of-way.

He is an old-time Marxist. The Communist party publication in Cuba, which he also has visited, gave him 25 pages.

"Every time a guerrilla knocks out a U.S. soldier this means one more step toward the liberation of those who fight for freedom in the United States."

The Detroit riot, he said, kept the Communist party busy for a week; they could not even be considered for duty in Vietnam.

Many student demonstrators, both black and white, deride suggestions of Communist control over their movements.

"Marx? Lenin? Those old fuddy-duddies," one young demonstrator chuckled through his beard. "Communists are people who wear coats and ties—just like you!"

Square or not, the Communist party is the art of mob manipulation. They have had 60 years' experience of organizing peasant and worker uprisings around the world.

"Fronts are things of the past," he said. "We don't need them." He said Gus Hall, secretary of the Communist party, U.S.A.

He was right. No operation one man, they were against the country has been more bold, direct or blatant than the Communist takeover of the youth project movement.

"We've got the DuBois Clubs, the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, the Students for a Democratic Society," Hall boasted. "We have them going for us and they are not fronts in the usual sense of the word."

Way in order to advance the cause of wildlife management.

In view of the shortage of refuges, we think Illinois conservation officials also ought to do all they can to speed development of Horseshoe Lake in Madison County as a state park. It is potential as a wildlife center and conservation area is great.

Midwest Flavor in Presidential Policies

Anathema to Eastern Politicians, Thinkers

Is the liberal Eastern political wing out to ridicule, render ineffective and then send into retirement another U. S. president? The answer appears to be "Yes," judging by the widespread denunciation of Pres. Nixon's brief telephone call to the moon, his warm reception for the history-making astronauts and his overseas travel.

That any other president probably would have done the same is being ignored. The point is that Nixon is not a Rockefeller or Harriman despite his New York address of recent years; he is fair game for relevant or irrelevant attacks because he does not genuflect to the powers-that-be, choosing instead to reach decisions and set policies largely on the basis of his own knowledge and judgment.

To the extent that liberal-conservative differences are involved, those who are important, that could be viewed as merely exercising their right to be heard and helping our democracy function. But we suspect that the hue and cry may be a bit geographical as well.

Even though most of America is much different than Manhattan, there is a feeling that all wisdom must emanate from within its skyscrapers, that anything occurring west of the Appalachians is of minor importance, that a blanket approach to issues is appropriate. The attitudes and ideas they have developed, powerful Easterners are convinced, are pertinent and viable virtually anywhere, with little or no allowance for regional variations.

A serious rent in the comforting fabric of their "security blanket" occurred with the November 1968 presidential election, when voters in the Midwest and fast-growing West prevailed.

Whether this unusual division of the electoral vote will be an isolated phenomenon or whether it will become a pattern yet to be determined. To help influence the outcome in 1972 and later years, both valid and invalid criticism is likely to be directed toward the present chief executive.

Midwesterners need not blind themselves to shortcomings they detect in the national administration, but they should be aware that at least past liberal-state officials whose attitude desire not to have "middle America" thinking indefinitely dominate national policies.

Big Impact of Court Decisions Spotlights Importance of Judicial Selection Process

Judicial salaries are increasing dramatically in this country, and the fact that judges in some cases the conduct of specific justice has been challenged.

The trend no doubt reflects awareness of the big impact of court decisions. For example, if members of the Illinois Supreme Court can find the time between commission hearings on whether some justices accepted financial help from indicted state officials whose alleged fraud they were considering, the high court needs to approve or reject without delay the state income tax that is scheduled to start this Friday.

A different kind of case was the Illinois law requiring motorcycleists to wear helmets. The top state court ruled in May that the law was unconstitutional.

Almost any ruling of the courts has a profound effect, directly or indirectly, on people. The responsibility is great, and the widespread hope is that judges will be equal to the task, especially since the present court system makes their replacement by voters difficult and unlikely.

While concealing his Communist connections, the agent was to exploit existing grievances, arouse members to protest, and then start the "storm," and use his own persuasive personality either to be elected or eventually to take over as spokesman for the group. Activities thereafter were to be directed along channels that served the ends of the party.

College campuses were particularly fertile soil. Castro's victory in Cuba in 1959 had shown what was to be achieved by a small group of young, dedicated followers.

Castro's deeds had stirred the imagination of American students already touched with revolutionary fever.

They were ripe for indoctrination by Communist, pro-Communist and liberal professors. There were plenty of these "discuss leaders" to be used, and the "evils" and "injustices" of imperialism, capitalism and the American system, and the oppression of oppressed peoples around the world.

Back-up was provided from outside by Communist party members, including himself, making speaking tours of the campuses.

Other methods were open for Communist party members to use. They were to use a technique developed from the earlier Communist front "study group" to reach larger audiences.

"Dressed up to look like fair debate, the teach-in was in fact carefully planned, time and space were carefully controlled, and the "discuss leaders" to be used were heeded armed with prepared questions and statements, versed in the art of stifling the opposition and swaying an audience.

Liberal movements calling themselves non-Communist or even anti-Communist were also marked for infiltration.

They were to be used to help some other Communist party member pick him up and set him on the bench.

He rides the bus there but it is getting harder for him to get on and off the bus.

I do not know him, but with everything, you have to be a little bit of a hypocrite to help him. I think it would be a wonderful thing if everyone could make a purchase from him.

WOMAN PENSIONER

50 YEARS AGO

JULY 28, 1919
This nation leads the world in illicit dope traffic, a special narcotics committee reports. There are a million drug addicts in the U.S.

Of 103,138 Illinois deaths in 1918, flu and pneumonia accounted for 34,334, including large numbers here. Measles, a disease foolishly regarded by some as trivial, caused the deaths of 341 persons, or 25 times as many as succumbed to smallpox and twice as many as died of scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan LeMasters, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Maserang, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. O. Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. George Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAnaney and Mr. and Mrs. H. Engleman enjoyed an old-fashioned basket picnic.

25 YEARS AGO

JULY 28, 1944
Charles Reimers was selected chairman of the Credit Bureau, succeeding Avery Carp. Harold R. Fischer is secretary and Meyer Roodman treasurer. In his concluding report, Carp noted that the Associated Retailers is an outgrowth of the retail merchants' association formed in 1939 by 17, a retail and most packers, was seized at his residence July 10, 1933, and kept in a cage.

A former bootlegger serving a life sentence as one of the kidnapers of the late August Luer of Alton has asked the right to file suit for habeas corpus to gain release from the Stateville penitentiary. Luer, 47, a retired banker and meat packer, was seized at his residence July 10, 1933, and kept in a cage.

The former bootlegger charged with the kidnaping has been in prison since, except for seven weeks after escaping from Menard in 1934. He seeks release due to "cruel and unusual punishment," including being forced to be in ice packs until nearly frozen, forced to stand in a needle spray under high-pressure nozzles, and forced to stay in extremely hot water and to enter ice baths. Such treatment, he alleges, violates the Eighth Amendment to the Constitution.

Population Growth Will Continue

(Granite City Long-Range Plan)

In recent years, Granite City has grown at a faster rate than any other city in the state. The Madison County, the St. Louis standard metropolitan statistical area, Illinois or the United States.

However, the 1967 special census revealed a small population with respect to migration. Several factors help explain the population loss based on the Bureau of the Census:

1. The number of births declined.

2. The possibility of over-enumeration in certain of the census tracts in the 1960's. An area around the Central Business District and an area within Granite City public housing units declined by approximately 50%, which appears highly doubtful.

3. Housing units were razed for expansion of industries.

4. Where concentrations of substandard housing appeared.

GIVE HARMFUL RUMORS
TO THE EDITOR:

I do not care to comment one way or the other on Mr. Schermer's remarks to the Madison Rotary a few weeks ago. Nor do I care to comment on the unknown Madison resident's reply printed in last Thursday's paper.

I wish to voice my personal objections to The Forum policy of printing letters, but keeping the sender's name secret if requested.

I personally have very little use for "well-meaning" people who make comments against other people behind the protection of "closed doors." Frequently, these "fine" people do great harm to others by repeating rumors and hearsay.

Knowing the facts and all the circumstances.

Far too few people have the guts to stand up and be counted. We seem to be sitting under the American traditions of the right to face our accusers, or that we are innocent until proven guilty.

Fortunately, we still have the courts in our country to protect us from well-meaning citizens. This paper is not needed by me I can only suggest that the policy of withholding names on request be discontinued.

Let us all walk with our heads high with the individual name of the writer or writers.

MAN TRIES TO AID SELF
TO THE EDITOR:

Why don't people help someone who tries very hard to help himself—a poor crippled man who sells pencils and gum from a sign box down on Madison Street?

He was on his knees with his head lying on a bench. He must have asked to be helped up.

I walked by and saw a man pick him up and set him on the bench.

He rides the bus there but it is getting harder for him to get on and off the bus.

I do not know him, but with everything, you have to be a little bit of a hypocrite to help him. I think it would be a wonderful thing if everyone could make a purchase from him.

Clare, 22, of Chicago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (Irene) Clare, former Granite Cityans, was killed last week in Vietnam, while engaged in a military operation with the U.S. Army Infantry. According to his grandmother, Mrs. Lura Clare of 2107 State street, the young serviceman has been in the Army just six months and overseas since January. He was also the holder of the Purple Heart Medal for wounds received earlier this year.

Two Dram Shop Suits Filed Against Taverns
Two dram shop suits were filed last week against three area taverns as a result of injuries sustained by two passengers of an auto driven by David Knight which knocked down a tree and struck a house at 2111 Lincoln avenue last June 15. Seeking $20,000 are Mrs. Sharon Wiley and her daughter, Sheryl, as Mrs. Wiley's husband, Andrew, was hurt in the mishap.

Asking $15,000 is Debbie Milton, a minor, by her mother, Mrs. Wanda Milton. The Milton girl also sustained injuries in the accident. The complaints allege that Knight became intoxicated in the taverns. The defendants are Louis C. Roustio, operator of the Horseshoe Lake Boat & Ski club; Samuel Andria, operator of Andria's liquor store; Ernie's tavern; Edna M. Rousup and Mary Margaret Andria.

Dow Workers' Cars Hit By Rocks, Damaged
Two autos were damaged by rocks thrown at them about 12:15 a.m. Friday along College street in Madison near the Fox Brothers plant, according to reports to Madison police. Four cars were damaged in a similar matter two weeks ago. Police said Rudolph Majkut, 1827 Edwardsville road, reported his car was damaged on the right side, and Lynn Dainton, Belleville, reported his car damaged on the rear right door. Both drivers were on their way home from their jobs at Dow Chemical Co.

GC Park's Summer Program 'Round Up' Set Wednesday

The Granite City summer recreation program, sponsored by the park district, will end with a summer "round-up" picnic supper at 6:15 p.m. Wednesday at Wilson Park in the vicinity of Benton and Fehling roads, according to Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, area supervisor.

Children and their parents are invited to attend. Tables will be reserved for each playground and plainly marked with a big flag representing each individual school. Entertainment by each playground in the rink pavilion will include the annual watermelon contest at 7 p.m.; a guessing contest, handicraft displays by each playground. Pre-school children under the direction of Rosemary Linder and Ruby Mayberry will perform along with Marilyn Champion's baton class.

Awards are to be presented to the boy and girl from each playground for "outstanding citizen" for the season and "rosettes" to the outstanding playground of the summer winning the most ribbons. Ribbons are also to be given to the all-star softball team.

Tentative dates of Saturday, Aug. 23, and Sunday, Aug. 24, have been chosen for a public open house at the new Madison county juvenile detention home on West Fifth street, Edwardsville.

The announcement was made during the weekend by William B. Webb Jr., a Granite City township assistant supervisor, who has been chairman of the juvenile home committee of the County Board of Supervisors during the years of effort to establish the facility.

"All those who took part in the planning, and there were many, are asked to make a special point to attend," Webb commented.

It is expected that the newly-constructed home will receive children for the first time on Wednesday, Aug. 27, or shortly afterward.

No Action By Council On Worker Agreements

Granite City council members took no action Thursday night during a special meeting called for agreement negotiations with representatives of the firefighters, Laborers, Teamsters, Painters and Building Service unions.

Only eight aldermen were present, insufficient number to conduct a meeting—so those present held informal discussions, individually and in groups with the union officials and agents.

The special meeting with the council had been requested last Monday night by Donald Parente, president of the Firefighters Union, and approval was voted by the aldermen who agreed to open negotiations with other unions.

Several of the union representatives commented Thursday night that they did not know if they would be able to attend tonight's regular council session and had hoped to reach agreement at the special meeting.

Council action on a $3,000,000 budget tonight is expected. The deadline for approval is Thursday, July 31.

Firefighters and the laborers and teamsters of the street department are seeking $75 monthly pay increases. Last Monday, council reached agreement with the police union and city hall employees for monthly increases of $35 for police and $30 for office workers, with an added holiday—Lincoln's Birthday, and four weeks vacation after 15 years.

Present for Thursday night's special meeting were Aldermen Baker, Nunn, Basarich, Whitmer, Boyd, Morien, Schuler and Duves.

Also present were Comptroller Stevens and Treasurer Rich.
